

SANTA FE COUNTY

Resolution No. 2010- 233

RESOLUTION TO ADOPT THE SANTA FE COUNTY VERSION OF THE "CODE OF THE WEST", KNOWN AS "RURAL LIVING IN SANTA FE COUNTY"

WHEREAS, the "Code of the West" was first chronicled by the western novelist, Zane Grey and adopted by numerous counties across the nation; and

WHEREAS, men and women who settled the western frontier were bound by an unwritten code of conduct; and

WHEREAS, in keeping with that spirit, we offer this information to help people who have chosen to build and/or live in the rural areas of Santa Fe County; and

WHEREAS, life in the country is rich and rewarding, treasured by both Santa Fe County residents who have been here for generations, and those who have recently moved here; and

WHEREAS, it's important that new property owners and homeowners know that life in "rural" parts of the County is different from life in town; and

WHEREAS, the County government cannot provide the same level of service in rural areas of Santa Fe County that city and town governments provide; and

WHEREAS, the information included in this Santa Fe County version of "The Code of the West" is designed to help you make an educated and informed decision as you consider purchasing or developing land in the unincorporated areas of Santa Fe County;

NOW, THEREFORE IT BE RESOLVED, that the Board of County Commissioners of Santa Fe adopt the Santa Fe County version of "The Code of the West" for publication and distribution.
