

Kimberly Vigil

Kim Vigil has served Santa Fe County as the Constituent Services Liaison with Commissioner, Anna Hansen since April of 2024 and will continue to engaged with and serve the community of District 2 with Commissioner Cacari Stone.

She brings to the office, a long career in customer service as a bank teller and later serving the State of New Mexico's Tax and Revenue department. After a couple of years, she moved to the First Judicial District Court Jury services division, then was a judicial specialist with the Magistrate Court in Rio Arriba and later, served as an executive assistant for the Law Offices of the Public Defender.

She is Native American from the Tewa villages of Nambe and Ohkay Owingeh and a proud mother of two children, and a devoted spouse for over 15 years. Kim places immense value on family devotes her time to passing on the traditional activities, language and culture to her family and community. She has also served as a board member and Treasurer for the Nambe Pueblo Development Corporation and as Secretary for the Nambe Pueblo Tribal Council.

An avid concert-goer and animal lover, her household is a lively one, shared with a cat, two dogs, one horse, and 14 goats. She also enjoys working part time as a bartender at the Buffalo Thunder Resort and Casino for the past 17 years.

Kim's commitment to exemplary customer service is evident in her relentless pursuit of innovative ways to connect and engage with the constituents of District 2. Kim Vigil continues to inspire those around her with her dedication, cultural pride, and unwavering commitment to serving her community.